Digital Library

Letter from Rafael Uribe Uribe to Theodore Roosevelt

Subjects: Revolution (Colombia : 1899-1903); Civil war; International relations; Colombia; Panama--Panama Canal; Spain; France; United States. Army. Volunteer Cavalry, 1st; Reyes, Rafael, 1851-1921; Emerson, Edwin, 1869-1959

Title:
Letter from Rafael Uribe Uribe to Theodore Roosevelt

Collection:
Library of Congress Manuscript Division

Description:
Rafael Uribe Uribe introduces himself as a representative of Colombia's Liberal Party and a soldier of the rebel army. He explains his party's opposition to the conservative regime and asserts that it fought against the extension of the concession of the Panama Canal to the French. He asserts that the liberals are fighting against tyrannical oppression and hopes that the United States will look upon them with sympathy.

Creation Date:
1901-12

Creator:
Uribe Uribe, Rafael, 1859-1914

Recipient:
Roosevelt, Theodore, 1858-1919

Citation (Chicago Style):
Letter from Rafael Uribe Uribe to Theodore Roosevelt. Theodore Roosevelt Papers. Library of Congress Manuscript Division. https://www.theodorerooseveltcenter.org/Research/Digital-Library/Record?libID=o36445. Theodore Roosevelt Digital Library. Dickinson State University.
Link to other styles

3 Images: Show By: Thumbnail View | Index View

Click on images to zoom in:

Page 1

Page 2

Page 3

View Expanded Record Details

Facebook Twitter Quote of the Day

Dickinson State University

Sitemap | Terms of Use | Privacy Policy